

Turkey Migration Studies Network (TurkMiS)

13th WORKSHOP 'SYRIAN REFUGEES IN TURKEY: RECEPTION, ECONOMY AND GOVERNANCE'

Conveners Franck Düvell (COMPAS) & Ali Zafer Sagioglu (Ankara Yildirim Beyazit University & COMPAS)

Friday 19 May 2017, 12.00-17.00

Centre on Migration, Policy and Society (COMPAS); South East European Studies (SEESOX),
University of Oxford

European Studies Centre, 70 Woodstock Road (ground floor seminar room)

12.00 Welcome, brownbag lunch, tea coffee

12.30 Introduction, Franck Düvell

12.45-14.45 Panel I 'Governance'

Chair: Ali Zafer Sagioglu

Sebnem Koser Akcapar, Associate Professor, Koç University, Istanbul

"Syrian Urban Refugees in Amman, Beirut and Istanbul: Local Governance and Transformation of Metropolitan Cities in the Middle East"

Fulya Memisoglu, research officer at the Refugee Studies Centre, Oxford

"Understanding Turkey's policy towards Syrian refugees: unpacking national and local level politics".

14.45 Coffee Break

15.00 - 17.00 Panel II 'Economics'

Chair: Franck Duvell

Eren Korkmaz, Newton International Fellow, International Migration Institute, Oxford

"How do Syrian refugee workers challenge supply chain management in the Turkish garment industry?"

Assist. Prof. A. Zafer Sagioglu & Sezin Tuna, Ankara Yildirim Beyazit University

"The Impacts of the Syrian Crisis and Syrians on Turkish Foreign Trade"

17.00 Closing Franck Duvell and Ali Zafer Sagioglu

Please register with franck.duvell@compas.ox.ac.uk